"SITE-READY" CHEMICALS

BULK "SITE-READY" TANKERS

Are you still mixing permanganate by the bucket? Dealing with H&S issues associated with handling potassium permanganate powder or high concentrations of sodium permanganate?

HEPURE offers "Site-Ready" liquid permanganate at the concentration you request. We pre-mix the solution at a controlled facility according to your specifications and deliver it in DOT-approved bulk tankers with HAZMAT-certified drivers to the site ready to be injected. This minimizes your field activities and safety concerns.

HEPURE offers the following benefits to our users:

- Minimize safety concerns involved in diluting high-concentration sodium permanganate or batch-mixing potassium permanganate powder;
- Improved staging and transportation of hazardous materials to meet safety regulations;
- Streamline field operations by eliminating complicated labor/equipment-intensive onsite mixing and handling activities;
- Offsite mixing in a controlled facility ensures more thorough mixing and higher QA/QC;
- Eliminates the need to clean, neutralize and dispose or return of containers, buckets, or mixing bins;
- HEPURE has a nation-wide network of industrial chemical mixing plants in major cities and industrial areas. Chances are we can mix and deliver the solution from a location not too far from your site.
